MEDICAL SUPPLIES

Canes, crutches and more

Use the program to buy a wide range of medically necessary supplies. Some examples include:

Canes and crutches	TENS units
Knee scooters	Arthritis gloves
CPAP supplies	Orthotics
Breast pumps and supplies	Thermometers
Compression stockings

A smart solution

These supplies typically cost less when purchased through our retail partners. When you combine those savings with discounts or coupons, you may pay less when you buy supplies through regence.com.

Purchases will be delivered to your door, and we'll reimburse you via our convenient online claims tool. This all adds up to a quick, easy and affordable way to get the supplies you need.

Additional retailers and options may be added to this program. You can also continue purchasing supplies through our other in-network providers.

Contracted DME suppliers

We contract with these medical equipment suppliers. They are the companies in our network that our members use most often.
