

Common Name:	Bleeding Heart
Scientific Name:	Dicentra
Bloom time:	Early spring, color varies with variety
Plant type:	perennial
Plant height:	18 inches
Exposure:	full to part shade
Soil:	any
Watering:	weekly until bloom is over then biweekly
Propagation:	division
Other:	This plant goes dormant in the heat of the summer
Warning:	This plant is poisonous