

ACE WOMEN'S Network®
Utah

Facilitators

Maura Hahnenberger, PhD, is an Assistant Professor of Geosciences at Salt Lake Community College. She is a past president of the SLCC UWHEN Chapter and a former state board member. Maura is the Social Media and Member Engagement Leader for the Earth Science Women's Network, an international non-profit focused on building a resilient community that lifts all women and moves the geosciences forward, through online and in-person networking, professional development events, advocacy, and more.

Sarah Reale is the Director of Digital Marketing at SLCC, where she manages the institutional website and web team, social media channels, email marketing, and video production. Before SLCC, Sarah worked at Utah State University in public relations and marketing, where she built the Aggie's social media presence. (Back when Twitter had just begun!) Sarah has a bachelor's degree in journalism, and a master's degree in political science from USU. Her favorite use of her master's degree is teaching an Intro to US Gov and Politics class at SLCC.

UWHEN FALL EVENT BUILDING YOUR NETWORK 9.13.19 @ SLCC

Join us for an engaging hands-on workshop where we'll discuss strategies for growing your professional network. You'll also have the opportunity to create your own networking map and, of course, you'll have the chance to network with other UWHEN members! At the end of the workshop attendees will be able to:

- Determine areas of your network that you would like to develop.
- Identify various opportunities for growing your network.
- Develop a networking map.

Friday, 9.13.19 @ 2-4PM

Salt Lake Community College

*Taylorsville Redwood Campus
